

Without doubts, Panorámica is considered one of the best courses in whole Spain, and it's the only one courses designed by an professional german Golf player, called Bernard Langer who was nine times player of the Team Europe Ryder Cup and two times

winner of the Masters of Augusta Golf.

Panorámica Golf, in the year 2005 became 10 year old, and has been well-known internationally for his Mediterranean countryside, his wonderfull dressing design of carob trees and century old olive trees and above all for the Ladies Open Tour 2005, which was celebrated here at Panorámica.

The green are based on large dimensions, seven holes and eight lakes, which make the players game to a variety one.

The most representative holes of the course are hole number 5, par 3 with 133 meters from the yelow tee, with a green like an isle and the hole number 11 of 502 meters, whoose letf side, last 200 meters devor reaching the green, is a hudge lake, here at Panorámica Golf & Country Club, and is going to be host in 2.006 edition of the Spanish OPen.

The course amounts to 80 hectars and it spectaculars conditions make it posible for using hole year. The design is a typical american one, consist of a combination between trees very closed and a rough make-up, which transformates the course an ideal one for high handycaps, also for players with an high level and specimen.
