A Castilian palace nearing the end of the 15th century, declared a historical and artistic monument, is the splendid frame that shelters the Hotel Ayala Berganza.

This unique hotel, nestled in the heart of the city of Segovia, enjoys a privileged setting, beneath the shadow of the Romanesque Church of San Millán and only two minutes walking to the aqueduct.

A hotel decorated with a special charm that, in addition, offers a first-class service, always ready to attend to the needs of even the most demanding guest.

The hotel has 17 rooms, of which there are 13 doubles, three individuals and one suite in the tower that boasts a row of stunning arched balconies from the XV century.

Each room is characterised for its quality and specially cared ornamentation, and everyone is distinctly decorated to offer you a more comfortable stay whether it be for pleasure or for work. All of the rooms are equipped with air conditioning, heating, telephone, piped music, mini bar and hair dryer, as well as satellite TV with an ample offering of channels included.

To guarantee a successful work meeting or any other type of private celebration, the hotel has two meeting rooms: one with capacity for 20 people, and the other one with a capacity for 12, both equipped with screen, overhead projector and a board for writing.
