

Palacio Eugenia de Montijo

The hotel is located in the Heart of the city centre. All the major historical sites such as the Cathedral, the Monastery of San Juan de los Reyes are nearby and easily accesible from the hotel.

This deluxe five star hotel, which was once owned by the Empress Eugenia de Montijo, was renovated by an efficient team of architects, archaeologists and restorers.

The result of the refurbishment is this marvellous Renaissance palace where the three cultures that lived in Toledo can be appreciated in different parts of the hotel.

Making you feel welcome, comfortable and special during your stay is our main objective. Let yourself embrace by the magic of this medieval city and this astonishing hotel.

Relax can be found in our luxurious Spa and Adolfo Muñoz, the most renown restaurateur in Toledo, offers a fine cuisine for the most refined palates.

The hotel has 40 rooms of which one of them is Suite and two, Junior Suites.

All of the rooms have been designed with magnificent and unique hand-made carpets, dressed with embroidered bed linen. Decorated with paintings from prestigious Toledo painters, design is added to comfort and style.
