

El Paraiso Golf Club

El Paraiso's greatest appeal is its location. The weather in southern Spain is world renowned, with over 300 days of sunshine every year.

And when the game is over there are all the ingredients to climax a memorable day, from the delights of Puerto Banús to the sophistication of Marbella town or the sights and sounds of Estepona town.

Relaxation, good food and wine and a chance to discuss how shots can be saved tomorrow.

The golf course is an easy, less than one hour drive, from Málaga airport or Gibraltar and you are spoilt for choice with the abundance of good hotels and rental apartments in the area, whatever your budget!

Situated between San Pedro de Alcántara and Estepona at Benavista, the course lies one kilometre from the El Paraiso Hotel.

"Our mission is to continually upgrade the golf course, clubhouse and other facilities, for the benefit and enjoyment of the members and visitors, in a sporting, friendly multinational environment".

The Golfers Paradise

Everywhere you look the views are magnificent, from many holes you can see the blue of the ocean and there is always the backdrop of the dramatic mountains. Gary Player has used these natural resources brilliantly to create one of the best designed courses in the Costa del Sol.

The clubhouse sits in the heart of the course, looking onto the 18th green and was created out of a number of country "casitas" giving it an intimate and friendly ambience helped by the attentive service of the "camareros".

Without no doubt El Paraiso Golf Club is a well designed course that golfers will never tire of playing and will look forward to returning for another chance to conquer!
