

PALACIO CASA GALESA, is situated in the very heart of the ancient city, graced by a fine example of Palma's famed Renaissance courtyards. It was built in 1571 and has recently undergone meticulous restoration, transforming it into one of the most exquisite establishments of the island. Surrounded by artworks of renowned painters and sculptors, as well as by the many original stained-glass windows, guests enjoy the sensation of sojourning in their own private museum.

The hotel was conceived as a unique lodging choice in the historic centre of Palma. Waking up in any of its 12 rooms and suites is like a dream – accents of Mallorcan furniture dating from the 17th and 18th centuries counterpointed with modern paintings and sculptures create a luxurious atmosphere, yet one that feels like home, and which includes all of the most up-to-date services.

All the rooms are different and have a unique decoration with antiques and paintings, all of them are equipped with satellite TV, Minibar, Free tea and coffee service, safe, heating and air-conditioning, private line, free wireless Internet, twin or king size beds, parquet and 24 hours room service. Bathrooms are decorated with special Mosaics from Paris and Mallorcan stones, with jacuzzi baths or showers-jets with salt service, bath towel heater, hair-dryer and anti-vapor mirrors, bath products, burnouse and slippers.

Strolling through its halls and lounges, bathing in the Gothic Quarter's only covered pool (a restored ancient Roman bath), reading by the fire or relaxing to the agreeable splash of the patio fountain.

Moreover, from the spacious rooftop solarium guests can enjoy a magnificent panoramic views of the Bay of Palma and the Cathedral.

Take care of your body, open your mind, calm down your spirit, harmonize your soul, integrate yourself with your heart with our treatments and baths.

Give your bath that special touch with Cava Brut Mœt Chandon, Don Perignon, Glass of Cognac, Havana cigar or Strawberries.

Price per person and per week [7 nights]	